

Seminar series

Digital History in/of Central Asia

Dear colleagues,

We invite you to the Seminar series "Digital History in/of Central Asia", organised by the Chair of Modern and Eastern European History, Friedrich Alexander University Erlangen-Nuremberg in collaboration with the German Association for East European Studies \(Deutsche Gesellschaft für Osteuropakunde, DGO\)

The fourth seminar will be held on February 22, 14:15 CEST (14:15 Berlin / 18:15 Tashkent / 19:15 Bishkek & Almaty) online in Zoom and onsite: Erlangen, Bismarckstr. 12.

Topic: "History of Kazakhstan" Portal and Archive Digitization Initiatives in the region.

Invited expert: Prof. Dr. Kairat Alimgazinov, head of the Center for Scientific and Applied Projects, Archive of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan, Almaty.

The "History of Kazakhstan" portal, launched in 2013, has become the leading online resource for the history of Kazakhstan. Over the course of 10 years, the portal has been publishing academic and educational content, news, articles, interviews, and archival documents, spanning from ancient times to the present. One of the project's initiators and partners is the Archive of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan, which ensures the accessibility of digitized documents to researchers worldwide through the portal. The presentation will also cover other initiatives related to the digitization of the archival sector in Kazakhstan as a whole.

Language: presentation: Russian, questions: English, German, Russian.

For registration and Zoom-link please write to Dinara Gagarina (dinara.gagarina@fau.de).

Seminar series "Digital History in/of Central Asia"

Prof. Dr. Kairat Alimgazinov,

Archive of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan, Almaty

History of Kazakhstan" Portal and Archive Digitization Initiatives in the region

February 22

14:15 CEST / 18:15 Tashkent / 19:15 Astana & Bishkek

Language: Russian

Friedrich-Alexander-Universität
Lehrstuhl für Neuere und Neueste
Geschichte mit dem Schwerpunkt
der Geschichte Osteuropas

onsite: Erlangen, Bismarckstr. 12
www.osteuropa.phil.fau.de online: Zoom

